

Bono, The Edge, Adam Clayton and Larry Mullins Jnr formed a band at school in 1976. Today U2 is undoubtedly the biggest name in the music world and one of the most successful groups of all time.

The Elevation U2 Tribute is an amazing and unrivalled dedication to the music and passion of U2 by the most experienced U2 cover in band in Australia. They are a must see band, U2 fan or not. But if you are a U2 fan, they will put you in the middle of a U2 gig like no other tribute show, from U2 beginnings to U2 today. You will hear all the hits from 'Boy' to 'No Line on the Horizon' and so much more.

Front man Steve Hancock has made the part of Bono his own with impeccable vocals, stage presence and passion. Steve is the face of U2 in Sydney and has played 1,000+ shows over 14 years in Australia and New Zealand as Bono, alongside a great band which continues to be the benchmark for all U2 Shows.

The Elevation U2 Tribute can be seen in full stage production, light show and costume or alternatively laid back and intimate in their Acoustic show. See one, see both and like so many others you will see them again and again.
